Established Landscaping business for sale in Brisbane North 5411IN

The phone for this business runs hot with more business than it can handle.

Word of mouth and an excellent website have meant that this business is by far the dominant one in its postcode.

This is your opportunity to buy a business with a lot of work to add to your existing business.

If you are not looking at this business as an add-on to your existing one as a standalone and will require some plant and equipment, the seller is prepared to sell additional pieces of equipment at the market price.

The business has been going for about 20 years and specialises in structural landscaping, including retaining walls and concreting.

If you want to expand into this area or you want to buy a business where the work is already in place, you will be interested in this business.

Four years of financial data is available for this business so that you can look at how it is growing.

The seller has traditionally stayed off the tools relying on subcontractors and others to do the work to his meticulous standards.
