Foodservice Brokerage. Seeking Food Industry Professional

Ready to Step Out on Your Own in the Foodservice Industry?

If you're a foodservice professional with deep industry knowledge and solid relationships, this is your chance to own a respected business and take control of your future.

For over 20 years, this Queensland-based Food Brokerage has been the trusted link between leading food manufacturers and foodservice distributors. Representing multiple clients across a wide territory, it manages key accounts with industry giants like Bidfood, PFD, Superior, Countrywide, Nafda, and a network of independents.

With a home-based model and low overheads, this business is easy to run and set for expansion. The current owner operates it solo - plenty of room to scale if you choose.

Why This Business Stands Out -

- Proven track record with long-standing clients
- Minimal competition in the space
- Flexible, low-cost operation from home
- Well-established industry relationships
- Handover support available

If you know the foodservice landscape and want more control, flexibility, and upside-this food brokerage opportunity is it.

Contact Brian or Jodi to discuss if this business is suitable.
