Civil and Electrical Contracting Business

An opportunity to acquire an established civil and electrical contracting business specialising in construction and maintenance of underground utilities and provision of high voltage solutions. With a lengthy trading history in the industry, this business has earned a reputation for its quality and reliability in Perth.

Key advantages of this business encompass potential for expansion, a presence in a specialised market, a solid customer and contract base, a team of experienced professionals, and a well-regarded, enduring relationship with clients.

This opportunity serves as an ideal strategic addition for a business aligned with these services, seeking entry into this sector to enhance their existing portfolio. It could also be an attractive prospect for an eastern states-based company aiming to establish a foothold in the Western Australian market. Additionally, individuals interested in owning and developing a standalone business in this industry may find this business promising for future growth and expansion.
