Profitable Surf School with Established Referral Base

This established and profitable Surf School has built solid referral relationships with local schools, accommodation and community service Providers over many years.

Several products contribute to a relatively stable revenue which includes private lessons, after school care, surf camps and group lessons. The product Mix provides diversity of income and a good mix of high-volume vs high margin sales. There is scope to build on the existing programs adding locations and additional lessons around lifestyle support programs.

1. Established Referral Base
2. Minimal Location Expenses
3. Staff in Place
4. Loads of Surf Equipment Included

The asking price is supported by proven profitability and an extensive list of surf equipment such as quality surf boards, wetsuits and ancillary items. A Mobile setup means there are no premises expenses and allows for easy movement between locations depending on surf conditions and customer ability levels. A fully sign written bus is used for school and group pickups.

Roster and lesson schedules have been setup to make use of contractors who specialise in delivery of different lessons styles. Staff are experienced and qualified Making them capable of running lessons without assistance from the current owners. The current owners participate on a part-time basis as needed plus take responsibility for lesson scheduling and admin tasks. An incoming owner would need a sound understanding of surf techniques, first aid and customer service skills.

Asking Price $165k Plus Motor Vehicles.
