This is an exceptional business with a "rise to top story" you need to be part of.

Exclusively listed and proudly put to market is this Australian owned manufacturer of hot and cold packs and other pain management products. This is an exceptional business with a "rise to top story" you need to be part of. Started by friends during covid to help manage pain and discomfort, they set about finding the best heat and cold pack products they could. Instead, they manufactured their own. This has grown into a turnover of $1.5 million per annum, and operational growth rarely seen in such a short time.

Their name is synonymous with quality and local support, with their wearable heat packs, neutral hot and cold packs, packs for kids, different limbs and joints, handwarmers and other items. Their items are functional and fashionable and come in a range of sizes to suit all.

Their items are made locally and adhere to strict manufacturing standards of safety and quality. They come in various shapes, sizes and designs and are stocked at various outlets across the Country, as well as online ordering through their website.

This business is fully staffed with a general manager in place to oversee the daily operations. The owners work in the business at their leisure or when workloads demand it.

This is an amazing opportunity to acquire a business built on hard work, intelligence, systems based, and a huge upside to further grow the business.

A factory lease is in place in West Melbourne with excellent rental and room to accommodate growth.

Items are outsourced to local labour companies who assemble them according to instructions, before being filled in house and stocked.

Full team of staff in place.

Full financials available.

Turnover $1,500,000 per annum

Excellent profits.

Well known and respected brand famous for donating back to charitable causes.
