Independent Practice North of the River Location

This is an excellent opportunity to acquire an independent optometry practice situated in the northern suburbs of Perth, Western Australia. Boasting a long trading history, the practice currently operates five days a week.

With a diverse patient base, including those seeking general optometry services and others drawn to the practice for its therapeutically qualified Seller and medical optometry focus, this opportunity offers a unique blend of services.

Benefiting from an established patient and referral network, there exists ample potential to expand and enhance the practice further. This practice presents an ideal investment for a motivated and seasoned optometrist eager to embark on their own practice. Unlock various possibilities and potential growth avenues with this well-positioned practice.
