Biggest, Brightest, Best Lolly Shop in Tasmania O/O $49,000+sav netting in excess of 100K

This has to be one of the best, low stress businesses available, where your customers are always happy eating chocolates, lollies, drinks and buying giftware. There is confectionary where ever you look. Excellent presentation, spacious, bright and cheerful.

This is a great business because it has very reasonable rent, particularly considering the large shop area, high margins as the owners manufacturer quite a range of products, buys in bulk and repackage, no returns, breakdowns or cooking.

Ideal for a working couple, only requiring 2 persons in peak times or when one owner is manufacturing.

The largest range of confectionary in Tasmania, including chocolates, fudge, jellies, rocky road, carob chocolates, sugar free and vegan, English and Dutch ranges, drinks and Valhalla Ice Cream.

Operating hours 7 hours per day and during winter only 4 days per week.

Current owners have enjoyed this business for 19 years and are due to retire, if you would enjoy a lifestyle change with an income in a beautiful part of Tasmania, look no further.

Manufacturing a wide range of goodies such as, chocolate and carob blocks of chocolate, fudge, Rocky Road, Nougat, truffles and more.

There is potential to increase this business in all directions, by attending markets with the hand made products, reinstate the cafe, wholesale the products made in house, increase the range of hand made products. Only limited by your imagination and motivation.

Who doesn't love chocolates? Who wants to move to Tasmania? and live in a country community, where you aren't a street number, rather a person know by your name.

This business could be relocated. the sale price includes an extensive range of plant and equipment, receipts, tuition, training and introduction to all suppliers.

Has its own web site and face book page. With excellent social media reviews.

Owners happy to give a trial to genuine purchasers.

This is a first time business owner's best choice, because it has a relatively low ingoing, low rent,
