Assisting Individuals with their Therapeutic Requirements

Are you looking to expand or get into the NDIS market this business is a proven quality provider to NDIS participants.

The business aims to support individuals to reach the goals they set together as well as offer opportunities for the future Allied Health Practitioners.

The current owners are involved in the initial consultation and discussions with the clients & then match the client with a therapy assistant to fit into the needs and requirements of the NDIS participant.

This business offers huge potential to keep growing the client base and work from home, be your own boss, work around kids or education.

The opportunities for growth are endless, according to government statistics There are around 4.3 million Australians who have a disability. Within the next five years the NDIS will provide an estimated 500,000 Australians who have permanent and significant disability with funding for supports and services. For many people, it will be the first time they receive the disability support they need.

This business is the ideal start for someone looking to have a turnkey operation with all the policies, procedures and IP in place or an established NDIS operator looking to scale or generate new business quickly.
