

Crane Truck Business for Sale Sydney

For Sale

Location: Sydney
Asking: $550,000
Type: Transport/Automotive

Generating Lots of New Business!

Ready-to-go turnkey opportunity! This sale includes everything you need to step into a successful crane truck operation. You'll acquire the state-of-the-art truck and equipment, along with goodwill, website, email, mobile number, and a Google Ads account.

The business is currently unable to keep up with demand and is having to turn away work. It's a great opportunity for new owner to grow the business from day one!

Over the past three years, the business has generated a substantial $2.1M in trading income, providing the owner an exceptional return of over $700,000. There is excellent earning potential with this business, limited only by the hours you want to work. Additionally, there is a trusted list of sub-contractors available to assist with excess workload, which the business is currently experiencing.

The workload is derived from a well-developed client list that continually expands due to high demand and the quality of service provided. Risk is further mitigated due to the sale of the business asset, which will hold continual value and could assist in financing this business venture.

This family-run business would be ideal for a single operator or a husband and wife team seeking to continue the success of this thriving venture. Moreover, given the financial performance, there's potential for someone to operate the business as a project manager and hire an operator.

Don't miss this chance to be your own boss! Contact us today for further information on this opportunity that won't last long.
