Blue-Chip Clients - Only open 4 days | MAS225

Located in Sydney's upper north shore, this well-established corporate flower business presents a rare and exciting opportunity.

Specializing in floral arrangements for high-end clients, the business services a loyal portfolio of blue-chip companies, schools, and churches.

With weekly standing orders and reliable monthly account payments, it offers stable, recurring income.

Currently operating just four days a week with weekends off, there is strong potential to expand trading hours and significantly boost profits.

The clean, open-plan fit-out features both front and rear access, making operations smooth and efficient.

Situated on a main road with exceptional signage and high visibility, the business benefits from constant foot and vehicle traffic.

A professionally built website is included in the sale, streamlining orders and showcasing the brand's elegant offering.

This is a turnkey operation with room to grow ideal for a passionate florist or investor seeking a lifestyle-friendly business with proven returns.
