Purpose Driven Provider with Scale and Proven Capability

A rare opportunity to acquire one of Western Australia's leading and most respected social services organisations, delivering complex care across NDIS, disability, youth, and therapeutic programs. This is a purpose-driven, multi-service platform with a proven track record in government-funded contracts, high-impact NDIS service delivery, and scalable infrastructure primed for continued growth.

Highlights:

- Average revenue of $32M+ across FY22 to FY25 at 35-40% EBITDA, with consistent high service demand
- Approx. 250 staff, with scalable workforce capacity and decentralised operations
- Access to 40+ properties available to facilitate SIL, STA, in-home care, and other support services
- Active service delivery across youth justice, out-of-home care, DVA, CoSA, and complex disability
- Well-established leadership team managing day-to-day delivery and multidisciplinary functions
- Deep referral networks from hospitals, schools, and government agencies
- Proprietary youth program with proven reintegration outcomes and sector credibility
- Trusted brand with strong goodwill, sector influence, and ongoing contract discussions with government departments

This is a nationally significant platform, refined, reputable, and ready for scale. With operational depth, strong sector relationships, and the capacity to deliver across high-need cohorts, the business presents a turnkey opportunity for impact-focused growth.

LINK Business Brokers is seeking Expressions of Interest over $24,000,000, reflecting the strength of current performance, sector positioning, and future tender potential.
