Most Popular Central Coast Furniture Store with over 40 Years History

Looking for a well-established, family-run furniture business with a strong reputation and loyal customer base? This thriving store has been built on friendly, personalised service, competitive pricing, and fast turnaround including same-day delivery and floor-stock sales for customers who want their furniture right away.

The store offers an extensive range of lounges, bedding, and home furnishings, with a focus on sourcing Australian-made products wherever possible. Stocking trusted brands such as La-Z-Boy, Sealy, and A.H. Beard, customers know they're getting exceptional quality at the best value.

With over 40 years trading history, this business has established itself as the most popular furniture store in the area. It is well known for serving second and third generation residents.

The store is strategically located amongst other businesses in its category and continues to thrive whilst competitors come and go.

This business is perfect for someone seeking a turnkey opportunity in the home and lifestyle sector, with everything already in place to continue its success.
