Not Just a Butcher Shop Growing Ready-Meal Concept | MAS238

An exceptional opportunity to acquire a well-established food business in Sydney's North region specializing in premium ready-to-cook meals and quality meats.

This is not your typical butcher shop. With a strong focus on convenience foods, cooked products, and easy meal solutions, this business enjoys steady repeat trade from a loyal local customer base.

Chicken sales and cooked items make up a large portion of turnover, while sausages are supplied ready-made keeping operations simple and efficient.

The current owner works only around 22 hours per week, making this an ideal lifestyle business or a perfect opportunity for a hands-on operator to increase profits further.

The business delivers good, consistent earnings with scope to grow through catering, online sales, or extended trading hours.

A fantastic opportunity in a sought-after North Sydney location offering strong profits, minimal labour, and easy operation.
