Established NDIS Registered Mental Health Practice - Exceptional Opportunity

Ray White Business Sales is pleased to present an excellent opportunity to acquire a well-established, values-driven mental health practice delivering a broad range of professional support services.

This respected practice specialises in trauma-informed psychotherapy, grief and loss counselling, LGBTQIA+ support, Employee Assistance Programs (EAP), clinical supervision, business coaching, and NDIS therapeutic services. Operating with a strong commitment to relational practice and long-term therapeutic change, the practice has built a stellar reputation for ethical and inclusive care.

The experienced team of accredited therapists offers flexible service options, including in-person, telehealth, and innovative approaches like walking therapy, catering to individuals, couples, families, and professionals. The practice thrives on empowering clients with strategies and insights to navigate life's challenges with confidence and resilience.

With over two decades of trusted service and steady growth, this is an outstanding opportunity for an investor or mental health professional seeking to acquire a thriving business with solid foundations and significant potential for further expansion.

To learn more about this exceptional opportunity, please contact Dr Peter Hughes or Brett Buckley from RWC Business Sales.
