Trans-Tasman Specialist Medical Recruitment

Well-established, niche medical recruitment business specialising in senior hospital specialists across New Zealand and Australia. The company enjoys nearly two decades of trading history, strong brand recognition in its niche, consistent revenue of ~$1m, and long-standing Preferred Supplier Agreements with public health providers and private specialist groups on both sides of the Tasman.

The business operates a lean, consultant-led model with low overheads and can be run from a home office or small commercial premises in New Zealand or Australia. A high-quality database of specialists underpins consistently strong, high-value permanent and locum placements.

Business is currently operating in NZ

Significant growth opportunities exist, including leveraging newly won government contracts and expanding services.

The founder is seeking an investor/partner ideally with experience in scaling professional services. The owner intends to retain a minority shareholding and remain active in the business post-transaction, ensuring continuity of relationships, expertise and specialist market knowledge.

Expressions of interest are invited from qualified buyers.

Asking Price: NZD $800,000 for 80% shareholding
