An exceptional opportunity exists to acquire Pack & Send Darwin & Palmerston, part of Australia's leading retail freight and logistics franchise network.

With annual sales now exceeding $1.3 million and showing consistent year-on-year growth, this business offers first-time buyers a secure, structured entry into business ownership without the risks of starting from scratch.

Key Features:

- * Well-regarded business with long trading history and strong repeat client base
- * Exclusive franchise rights for the Top End of the NT
- * New 10 + 10 franchise agreement
- * Long-term leases at excellent rates
- * Low staff numbers required to operate the model
- * Family-friendly trading hours
- * Experienced manager in place overseeing daily operations (Note that a franchise requirement will be for the buyer to still work in the business full time)

As part of the national Pack & Send network, the incoming owner benefits from:

- * Comprehensive training and ongoing franchisor support
- * Proven systems, documented procedures and advanced proprietary CRM software
- * National marketing programs funded via franchisor levy
- * Centrally managed website and digital marketing
- * Established supplier and carrier relationships

No prior freight or logistics experience is required. The business services a diverse and resilient market including art galleries within the Indigenous art sector, corporate organisations and multiple
