Home Sewage Treatment Plant Services Business (HSTP) - 5919

A rare opportunity to acquire a well-established and highly regarded essential services business operating across a large footprint covering the South Western regions from Brisbane.

Trading successfully since 2017, this business provides ongoing compliance-based servicing to a broad household client base with excellent growth opportunity.

Built around recurring income, the business benefits from regular scheduled service requirements, additional repair and call-out work, and strong long-term demand fundamentals. With no lease and no rent, overheads remain low while flexibility and lifestyle appeal remain high.

Key Features

Net return to one working owner exceeding $200,000

No lease, no rent - home-based operation

Mandatory quarterly servicing - Home Sewage Treatment Plants must be serviced every 3 months under council regulations, ensuring recurring demand

Established household client base with annual service agreements

Additional revenue from repairs, call-outs, pumps, aerators and system components

Essential service industry - resilient and recession-resistant

Strong reputation within the Scenic Rim and Ipswich regions

Significant population growth forecast across the service territory

Excellent opportunity for an owner-operator or trade-based buyer

This business is well positioned to benefit from continued population growth and ongoing infrastructure expansion in its service areas, making it an attractive acquisition for an owner-operator seeking consistent income, low overheads, and future upside.

Ideal for someone looking for a solid, service-based business with dependable earnings and excellent growth potential.
