ESTABLISHED LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE PRACTICE STRONG PROFITS OWNERS RETIRING

An exceptional opportunity to acquire a highly respected Victorian landscape architecture practice with an enviable reputation built over more than three decades.

Established in 1991, this professional consultancy has become a trusted name within the industry, delivering landscape architectural services across a broad range of projects and sectors. The business is supported by a highly experienced, long-serving team, allowing the current owners to focus on strategic oversight while ensuring continuity for clients and projects.

Key Features

Established and operating successfully since 1991

- * Registered with the Australian Institute of Landscape Architects (AILA)
- * Highly skilled and loyal team in place
- * Owners retiring and committed to a generous transition period
- * Six-year average annual turnover of approximately $1 million
- * Six-year average net profit of approximately $380,000
- * Strong reputation with long-standing clients and repeat business
- * Extensive project pipeline providing immediate income security

The business currently holds approximately $600,000 in committed future work, with a further $800,000 in submitted quotations awaiting confirmation. This substantial pipeline provides an incoming purchaser with confidence, continuity and excellent growth potential from day one. Much of their work is focussed in the Regional areas given the business niche standing.
