Profitable Gourmet Food Manufacturing and Wholesale Relocatable Business Est 2014 Growth Potential

Here's your chance to acquire a well-established wholesale food manufacturing business with a reputation for producing premium gourmet products enjoyed across Tasmania.

The range includes popular favourites such as Granola, Balsamic & Olive Oil Dipping Sauce, Dukkah, Trail Mix and other specialty products.

Established by the current owner in 2014, the business began as a small backyard operation and has steadily grown into a respected wholesale supplier servicing more than 50 loyal retail customers.

The business has built its success through the quality of its products, outstanding customer service and strong word-of-mouth referrals, with nothing spent on advertising or marketing.

Over the years, the business has received industry recognition for the quality of its products and continues to enjoy a loyal customer base with consistent repeat orders.

Currently operating from a council-approved commercial kitchen, the business offers excellent flexibility. STCA, a new owner could relocate the operation to their own approved kitchen or integrate it into an existing cafe, food manufacturing business, making it an ideal bolt-on opportunity.

This is a business that offers both lifestyle and income. Whether you're looking for a profitable owner-operated venture or you're an existing food venue/ producer wanting to expand into the wholesale market, the foundations are already in place.

There is still significant potential for growth. The business has never actively embraced social media, online marketing or e-commerce, leaving plenty of opportunity for a new owner to increase brand awareness, attract new wholesale customers and develop direct-to-consumer sales.

The sale includes proven recipes, intellectual property, production equipment and everything required to continue operating from day one. The current owner is committed to providing comprehensive training and introducing the successful purchaser to existing customers to ensure a smooth transition.

If you're looking for an established food manufacturing business with an excellent reputation, loyal customers and genuine growth potential, this business deserves your attention.
