Northern Rivers Stone Benchtop Manufacturing Business

Established Stone Benchtop Manufacturer | Annual Revenue Growth | Healthy Margins

Business Summary

An opportunity to acquire a well-established stone benchtop manufacturing business servicing the Northern Rivers region. The business has built a longstanding presence in the market, operating from a purpose-built manufacturing facility. The business is equipped with a comprehensive range of processing machinery, dust extraction and waste management systems, providing the infrastructure to support ongoing and fully compliant operations.

The business services a broad range of residential and commercial clients and is supported by an experienced team of stonemasons and installers. The substantial portfolio of plant, equipment includes automated stone processing machinery and late model motor vehicles all included in the sale price.

While industry experience would be advantageous, the business is supported by established systems and experienced staff, making it suitable for a range of buyers.
