Chuck Wagon Fitouts. Equine Fitout Business.

Chuck Wagon Fitouts presents an opportunity to acquire an owner-operated business specialising in fitouts for the equine industry, predominantly working on gooseneck trailers, living boxes and shipping containers.

Located in Clifton, Queensland, Chuck Wagon Fitouts is well positioned to serve the equine and rural communities of the Darling Downs and surrounding regions. Situated between Toowoomba and Warwick, the business is accessible to horse owners, equestrian competitors and rural customers alike.

The business currently has projects scheduled through to the end of the financial year, with the ability to confirm orders for a further year once a new owner is secured. This forward demand provides an incoming purchaser with a solid foundation and the opportunity to increase capacity.

Currently operated solely by the owner, the business previously employed an assistant before the owner deliberately scaled back for lifestyle reasons. An incoming purchaser could continue with a hands-on, owner-operated model or employ additional assistance to take on more work.

The current owner came from a handyman background. The role would suit a practical person who enjoys working with their hands, has a strong eye for detail and takes pride in delivering quality workmanship.

Beyond its core equine focus, there is ample scope to expand into caravan refurbishments and renovations, broadening the customer base and creating an additional source of revenue.
