Established FNQ Wholesale Business | $595K Forecast Net Profit | 20+ Years Trading

An outstanding opportunity to acquire a well-established and highly regarded wholesale business servicing key industries throughout Far North Queensland. With more than 20 years of successful trading, this unique operation has built a strong market presence, an established customer base and an enviable reputation across the region.

A High-Performing Regional Operation | Over 20 Years of Trading | Strong Management Structure

Operating from strategically positioned outlets in Cairns and Port Douglas, the business services a broad geographical territory and benefits from established industry relationships and consistent demand.

A Business Built for Continued Growth

The business is supported by a capable and experienced team, including a Cairns-based manager and established sales representatives who drive customer relationships and day-to-day operations.

The owner currently contributes approximately two days per week, primarily undertaking administrative duties, providing an attractive opportunity for a new owner to step into an established operation without needing to be involved in the daily running of the business.

Further strengthening its position, an experienced sales representative has recently joined the business from a competitor, bringing valuable industry knowledge, relationships and additional sales capability.

With momentum continuing to build, the business is well positioned to capitalise on further growth opportunities throughout Far North Queensland.
