Experienced staff are in place and capable of taking care of the day to day running of the business. The owner's role, that you would be taking over, mainly involves overall management and administration.

The factory is fully set up for in-house digital printing, offset printing, binding, and finishing. It also offers graphic design services. As a result, this business is a convenient, one-stop-shop, for its customers' print and design needs.

Over the years, the business has built up a substantial list of long-term repeat customers. These are broadly spread allowing you to benefit from not being particularly dependent on any one client.

The business trades Monday to Friday only. This means that you will be able to enjoy a healthy work-lifestyle balance.

For the 2026 financial year, this solidly profitable business achieved a profit to the working owner of $367,000.

This quality business is being offered for sale at $540,000.
