Food Processing and Distribution - Wholesale and Export - MBB

About the business:

The business is one of the largest and leading privately owned poultry processors in Australia. The business effectively services the growing commercial and wholesale demand for quality poultry meat through a broad distribution network throughout Australia. The growing demand is being driven by strong consumer demand for quality, healthy and affordable poultry meat. The business recently obtained an export license which will allow the business to further expand its distribution, especially in lucrative international markets where demand for quality Australian Poultry is high. Since its establishment in 1985, the business has built a great reputation and is recognised widely as a leader in the industry throughout the broader NSW and Australian markets.

About the opportunity:

There are huge opportunities to grow the business. The current operation provides a great platform to expand the product range and its distribution in Australian and International markets. The business operates from an impressive and well equipped NSW based property and processing facility which is also available for sale (separately to the business). It is expected that a focused and driven owner could achieve greater efficiencies, higher sales and improved profits. Features of the business include; Quality, valuable assets with an estimated replacement value of circa $15M included in the sale. Very profitable business model, an opportunity exists to establish a website and a marketing presence that could leverage its market leading presence in the region, a great opportunity to scale the business and leverage the value of being strategically aligned to one of Australia's most in demand food products Poultry.
