Coal & Mineral Exploration Contractor Indonesia

Our client is a leading Indonesian based coal and mineral geological and exploration contractor.

With a range of exceptional domestic and international opportunities available, the company is seeking a long-term investor to be actively involved in the future growth of the business.

Established for more than 15 years, the depth of technical data held is unparalleled. Highly skilled staff, comprehensive equipment fleet and bespoke software allow the company to offer full life of mine services to a broad, quality client base. The business has manufacturing capability, as well as best practice, in-house training facilities.

Clients include established operators through to new entrants to the market.

With the resources sector in SE Asia poised for renewed growth, the time is right to invest.
