Freehold Successful Service Station with General Store and cafe for sale

This long-established Hunter Valley Service Station and General Store with newsagency and café boasts only three owners in 85 years. This excellent and rare freehold opportunity has arisen due to the current Owner turning their focus to their core (and non-competing) business.

The business provides friendly and professional service to the local residents, mining community and the burgeoning tourist trade.

- * Currently fully managed would also suit owner-operator, partnership or family run business
- * Underground tanks in great condition with certification
- * As new bowsers/hoses, covered under canopy
- * Location is a busy road used by residents, workers and tourists
- * Trades from early morning to 6pm
- * Employees run under management (refer to agent for more details)
- * Fuel sales average 104,000L p/month approx. and growing
- * Strong demonstrable profitability and consistent sales growth
- * Large 2100m2 approx site with lots of parking
