Timber Machinery and Renovation Products Business For Sale #3727

This business which is located in the Brisbane Metro area is a leader in the machining of specialty renovation products to match existing finishes. It provides a full range of products with the added ability of producing materials to required specifications.

This business has been going for 35 years with an adjusted profit in the financial year of 2018 of about $230,000.

It has lots of very good quality plant and equipment including machinery, vehicles and racking at approximately $550,000.

Stock on hand is approximately $300,000 and the business has very solid long standing relationships with its suppliers of timber.

It is a leading contract machining business respected for its high standards in quality and workmanship. In addition it services a niche market characterised by its ability to supply products not readily available on the market in other retail or wholesale outlets.

The property the business is located on has lots of space and is owned by the seller of the business so a suitable lease can be negotiated.

The owner of the business has another business located offshore and is selling the business as part of move towards retirement.
