SECURITY BUSINESS (SOLD)

SECURITY BUSINESS (SOLD)

OWNER RETIRING

My vendor has owned and operated this business for over 30 years and at 76 feels it's time to stop & smell the roses.

This has opened up a huge opportunity for a technically minded individual or an established security firm that is seeking a growth by acquisition strategy.

The business boasts over 300 monitored alarm customers providing steady recurring income and there are secondary income streams from supply & installation of alarms, CCTV, access panels etc.

No marketing is done at the moment & this means that a progressive new owner would greatly benefit from a comprehensive marketing strategy including websites, social media presence etc.

A comprehensive transition period is on offer & ongoing consultation over the longer term if required.
