Boutique Northern Beaches Travel Agency

Located in a lovely village style location in Sydney's north. A short drive to the Northern Beaches & an enviable lifestyle.

Not just serving local and interstate clients, this Agency is actively involved with inbound tourism, group travel, specialty holidays as well as Emergency travel services for international departments.

From budget hideaways to worldwide luxury escorted holidays, this well run and PROFITABLE Travel Agency offers a comprehensive service.

With specific systems in place, the owner shows proven & remarkable profit margins for the travel industry.

Established in 2003, building a large and loyal client following, this business would suit an owner/operator, partners or even as a \"bolt on\" for an existing Travel Agency seeking to expand.

Our Client has family issues that require him to lessen his daily involvement, however is willing to remain a part time or casual role to assist the new owners in the growth of the Agency.
