Do businesses get any better than this?

Running from a home office, this business has over 30 years of history and services both residential and commercial clients. They have multiple streams of income from new products sales, spare parts sales as well as in field service.

They have Exclusive distribution rights for the market leading product in Queensland giving them a very strong market position. In fact they do very little marketing as they receive more than enough business from repeat and referral business to keep them busy. Watch this business boom by doing some online advertising and going out to meet prospective clients who could refer work.

Aligned to the building industry, revenue and profits have been steadily increasing and in 2019 profits to the owners were well $200,000. All this while having some flexibility around your work and the ability to take multiple holidays throughout the year (including overseas).

Close inspection will highlight that there are still huge opportunities to expand this business in the future.

Don't let this be the one that got away! call now to find out more.
