Wholesale Supplier to Trade Customers

Established for 10 years with good growth.
Turnover in excess of $160,000 per month with strong profitability
5 days per week with minimal staff
Selling to trade customers only- no dealing with the public
Part of national buying group.

This specialised trade supplier has been established on the Sunshine Coast for 10 years and has a good track record of growth. Selling specialised goods that aren't available at Bunnings or any other hardware store, their loyal trade customers are consistently seeking out their products to complete their daily work. Over their 10 year history, sales have been consistently growing and now exceed $160,000 monthly which has seen the business produce very generous profits. They are also part of a national buying group which has access to market leading products at sharp prices as well as support and backup from the largest suppliers in the market.

Operating from their spacious warehouse in a very central location, a new owner will probably find this business easier to run than most others. There is minimal staff employed, they only trade 5 days per week and only a moderate amount logistics or deliveries to co-ordinate. Simply give good service and assistance to the hundreds of tradies who drop into the showroom.

With the current owner looking to retire, they are committed to a smooth handover which may include working as an employee for a period of time after completion.

Building construction, and trade services has a bright future on the Sunshine Coast with the amount of growth expected in the coming decades and there is still plenty of opportunity for a motivated owner who wants to put the work in.

Closer inspection will impress so call now for more information.
