Business for Sale Description

Cafe for Sale Wollongong NSW Asking: $149,000 ONO

Established four years ago, this successful café is situated in an excellent central location in Wollongong within walking distance from WIN Stadium and the beach, benefiting from ample foot and vehicular traffic daily.

Offering a range of breakfast and lunch options, Buck's café has maintained a high level of service that consumers increasingly expect through a warm, friendly and speedy service. This strategy has proven successful over the years, resulting in plenty of positive online reviews on Google and solid performance. Presently, the business employs two staff members in addition to the owner who works hands-on in the business as a barista and cook. Growth opportunities for this business include expanding its food offering, introducing deliveries as well as catering options.

This is a unique opportunity for a motivated individual, couple or family wishing to acquire a reputable business that has provided the owner with an enviable lifestyle. Prospective purchasers are encouraged to carefully consider this opportunity which is already positioned for further great success.
